INFORMATION INTERVIEWS

FACILITATED BY: NYSSA SCRUBB & POORNIMA MOHAN

Tuesday, June 15th, 2010 from 5:30pm to 7:30pm

This workshop has been developed to help internationally educated professionals like you learn how to get the most out of an information interview. This workshop will take you beyond your mentee orientation and cover points such as;

- How to secure an information interview
- How to discuss employment possibilities without asking for employment?
- What can be done to ensure you don't overdo it in the interview?
- How can you tap into the employers' network?
- And much much more...

Nyssa Scrubb has rich experience in case management, assessment, career and work counselling and facilitation. She is certified in Common Assessment as well as Personality Dimensions, Level 1 and has been affiliated with organizations such as Y.E.S. (Youth Employment Service), YMCA of Greater Toronto, Scarborough Youth Justice Services and Vocational Pathways Inc. In addition, Nyssa also has 3 years of management experience in the hospitality sector.

Poornima Mohan is a certified professional in Human Resources Management, Life Skills Training and Basic Counselling. She presently works as a Settlement and Employment Counsellor for Immigrant and Community Support Services and has written several articles for Employment News which you can view online @ www.settlement.org. In addition, Poornima has planned and designed the FAQ section for newcomers on the website www.awic.org. This workshop is a must for every individual whether "in transition" or currently employed. Improving your communication skills requires dedication and the desire to change your own negative behaviours. You can dramatically increase your ability to communicate and influence others if you learn to change your own negative behaviours and build upon the positive.
