Kelly McDonald, CHRP, Manager of Human Resources

Tuesday, June 22nd 2010, 1:30pm -3:30pm

(Light refreshments will be provided)

- In this critical workshop, Kelly McDonald, CHRP, will show you:
 - How to conduct and present yourself in an interview;
 - What an employer should not ask you in an interview (and how to respond if you are asked such a question);
 - What HR won't tell you (i.e. the reasons you were not hired or moved on to the next level);

Kelly McDonald, CHRP, is the Manager of Human Resources at a non-profit healthcare organization. She draws upon her experiences working in the telecommunications, retail, health care and professional services fields. Having recruited for all levels and a variety of positions, she is well versed with interview techniques and what busy recruiters hope to see when meeting candidates. Kelly is a mentor in The Mentoring Partnership. She also serves as the Secretary on the Board of Directors with Dixie Bloor Neighbourhood Centre.

Karl Lewis is a top facilitator and coach in the Mentoring Partnership Program. A purpose driven professional, Karl is experienced in career development, employment and job search consultation, seminar instruction and mentor relationships. Karl's experience includes both private and public sector initiatives. He is also a gifted motivational speaker and effective resume writer. Karl also has a proven track record in assisting Internationally Trained Professionals to successfully integrate into the Canadian employment market.
